NEED HELP?
Park Rangers patrol the Zoo and can help with first aid, locating a lost person or items as well as provide directions. Just look for a staff person wearing a shirt with a gold star on the front and 'Park Ranger' on the back. You may also visit the Park Rangers Station, located next to the Gift Shop.

Wild Walk
sponsored by BlueCross BlueShield of Arizona
An Independent Licensee of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association

The on this map shows where you'll find stations along the Wild Walk. Follow these signs to learn exercises for a healthy lifestyle and fun tidbits about our Zoo animals.

For the health of our animals and guests, the Phoenix Zoo is a smoke-free facility.

Look for recycling bins throughout the Zoo to recycle your plastics, aluminum and paper.

Please respect the Zoo's landscape by staying on designated public paths.

Please refrain from feeding the animals as they receive a balanced diet from their keepers.

The Phoenix Zoo has been a grateful recipient of generous financial support from various charitable foundations, corporations and individuals. With such support, we are completing Phase I of the Zoo's World Class Zoo For A World Class City Capital Campaign. We look forward to breaking ground in 2014 for the remaining projects, the Doornbos Volunteer and Administrative Center and the Sumatran Tiger Experience and Exhibit. To learn more about Phase II of the Zoo's Capital Campaign and how you can help, visit Guest Services or phoenixzoo.org.
